HAPPY

written by Bud Manthey

I'd like to be happy I'd rather be a happier man
Happy try and make me happy if you can Cause there's happiness in giving so I tried to give more
I did my best I had a reason for living
Now they've ground me to the floor

I hope you all happy I hope you all so happy now
Happy well I'd give my life for redemption
Sure I've made mistakes Hell I'm only human
Some rules got bent but I didn't let them break
Now life's a black hole of heartache
Oh happy yeah I'd rather be a happier man
Happy try and make me happy if you can

All that I believe in and what I know is right
My faith in God and human kindness is drifting out of sight

Try and make me happy if you can

Oh happy yeah x 3 I'd rather be I'd rather be Hap Hap Hap err....

I thought I'd write the world a love song
But the world took it all wrong
You've all closed your minds and you've closed your hearts.
You torn mine apart
Happy
