SIGHT AND MIND

written by Bud Manthey

I think your as smart as can be
But you're OH so ugly
And so the chances of us getting together
Are racing out of sight and mind

I can see you look pretty good
But I think that your pretty dumb
And so the chances are of us being happy
Are drifting out of sight and mind

I used to see better than I'd think
But now I'm thinking pretty good as well
And so the chances of finding the right girl
Are slipping out of sight and mind

Well I think you're as cute as can be
And I can see that you're OH so smart
But the chances of you liking me girl
Are sinking out of sight and mind

We all think we look pretty good
And we envision that we're OH so smart
But the fact is we're all doopy looking losers
But lets put it out of sight and mind
